Well established facts

– Hayek was related to Ludwig Wittgenstein (they were allegedly cousins) – Hayek himself was the first one to collect biographical material on Ludwig Wittgenstein in „Remembering my Cousin L. Wittgenstein“
– Hayek had some Czech roots (one may derive that conclusion from his name itself) – in Czech „Hayek/hájek“ means „little forest“
Auntie POLDI

- Kalmus/Stallner family financed Wittgenstein rise in northern Bohemia (Teplice)
- She became a trademark of a new development in Kladno (West of Prague) in 1889
Hayek and Wittgenstein

Mr. Stallner

Jacob Kalmus (1814 – 1870)

Marie Stallner (1825 – 1921)

Johann Stallner

Mrs. Stallner

Johanna Stallner

Ida Pokorny

Franz von Juraschek (1849 – 1910)

Karl Wittgenstein (8.4.1847 – 20.1.1913)

Leopoldina Kalmusová (14.3.1850 – 1926) „POLDI“

Franz von Juraschek

Ludwig Wittgenstein (1889 – 1851)

Hermina Wittgenstein (1.12.1874 – 11.2.1950)

Greta von Juraschek

Gertruda von Juraschek

Friedrich August von Hayek (1899 – 1992)

August von Hayek (1871 – 1928)

Felicitas von Juraschek (1875 – 1930)

Leopoldina Kalmusová (14.3.1850 – 1926) „POLDI“

Hermina Wittgenstein (1.12.1874 – 11.2.1950)

Greta von Juraschek

Gertruda von Juraschek

Friedrich August von Hayek (1899 – 1992)

August von Hayek (1871 – 1928)
House in Brno

– Amalia’s dowry was a house in Brno known till today as the House of Lords of Lipá or the Schwanz Palace
– Hayek’s Family owned the house till 1880
Thank you.